Christianity In Crisis: The 21st Century Jan 30 2020 Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff's award-winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith. But in the 21st century, there are new dangers—new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last. These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmask. We know their names. We have seen their faces, sat in their churches, and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give-to-get gospel. They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls. Through make-believe miracles, urban legends, counterfeit Christs, and twisted theological reasoning, they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe: "God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission." "Keep saying it—I have equality with God—talk yourself into it." "Being poor is a sin." "The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah; it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews!" "You create your own world the same way God creates His. He speaks, and things happen; you speak, and they happen." Christianity in Crisis: 21st Century exposes darkness to light, pointing us back to a Christianity centered in Christ. From the Preface: "Having lost the ability to think biblically, postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators. Pop culture beckons, and postmodern Christians have taken the bait. As a result, the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas."

Mysteries of the Anointing Aug 31 2022 "How can some ministers whose personal and spiritual lives are dried up and in shambles still operate in the anointing and continue to minister with power? Pastor Benny Hinn asked this question during a season of personal trial, and his quest lead him to an in-depth understanding of three "rivers," or types, of anointing in Scripture: the anointing within you (1 John 2:27), the anointing upon you (Acts 1:8), and the global anointing, which builds up and destroys nations (Isa. 10:27). In this book Hinn explores these three types of anointing, sharing personal stories of things he learned firsthand from Kathryn Kuhlman and Oral Roberts, as well as providing biblical and historical examples that illustrate his teachings"--Back cover.

Walking in the Prophetic Anointing Jul 06 2020 Walking in the Prophetic Anointing is not just a catch phrase or a magic potion that is poured on you. In fact, it is constantly living in the presence of God, so that you will be able to fulfill God's call and purpose on your life. Walking in the Prophet Anointing also does not mean that you will not experience problems. On the contrary, you will encounter battles, after battles in your life. David who was anointed to be the next king of Israel had many close calls with death despite him being anointed by God. Despite the challenges we face in our lives; God still expect us to fulfill the mandate that he has given us. Walking in the prophetic anointing also requires us to live a life of consecration, prayer and fasting, so we can maintain the presence of God in our lives. Failure to do this will result in us not being able to accomplish the purpose for which we were created. I am often reminded of Luke 4:18, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised." Therefore, let us continue to walk in the prophetic anointing so that we will be able to fulfill our calling through Christ Jesus.
